I hold a BA in psychopedagogy from National university of Rwanda. Currently, I am working as an academic program officer at Kigali Health Institute a position that makes me to meet with students of different backgrounds. In this case it requires me of great competence of not only improving quality of work, but also offering support. I will as well be able to improve the quality of my work, compete in the changing labor market much acquiring an advanced qualification, which I hope to attain with this scholarship. Building my knoweldge in this field is a good opportunity to the nation

2. Give three examples of how your intended studies in Sweden and your choice of study program would affect your personal and professional/ academic development. [Max 600 characters incl. spaces].

Master's Dgree in Managing People & Change will allow me to improve my capacity of problem solving, resulting into better decision-making abilities. I will be more qualified to produce effective management of people and this program would further qualify me for a position with more impact on policy making in Rwanda. Meeting with other scholars will not only help me to better understand how other people live, but also to make more professional and academic contacts, that will be of great benefit for both myself and Rwanda in future.

3. In what way would your intended studies in Sweden contribute to the development of your home country? [Max 600 characters incl. spaces].

This course will contribute to the development of my country in terms of capacity building in as far as managing people, co-ordinating activities and improving inter-relationships all for the good of the country. I will be able as a consultant in the fields of human resources and personel management. In the Rwandan labour market I will be a focal point, because few people are qualified in this field and my input will be mainly building the capacity of people to do work
